ADORATION

Profess Our Love For God In Adoration

We profess our love for God in the Real Presence by putting into practice what we profess with our lips or even profess in the depth of our hearts. Our love for God is to be lived. It is to be lived in the real world in which He has in fact placed us, real circumstances, real conditions, real people, at the present time, so that we are putting into practice what we may be sincerely telling our Lord in prayer. Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, we may say, is the soul of our love for God. But to be alive, a soul must have a body. The body of this soul is the active expression of what it professes in the thoughts, desires and sentiments. Finally, we profess our love of God in the Real Presence when we promote our hearts.

Show your love for Jesus by coming to Adoration, committing to an hour of prayer.

Permanent Person needed for time slots of 8-9:00 am on Wednesday; and 5:30-6:30 pm on Wednesday. To signup, call Ruthann at 756-8551.
