ADORATION

Come Adore Our Lord

Oh! How can we forget our Lord's love, a love cost Him so much and is so lavish of everything!

In this state of death Jesus is without beauty, motion or defense; He is wrapped in the Sacred Species as in a shroud and laid in the tabernacle as in a tomb. He is there, however; He sees everything and hears everything. He submits to everything as though He were dead. His love casts a veil over His power, His glory, His hands, His feet, his beautiful face and His sacred lips; it has hidden everything. It has left Him only His Heart to love us and His state of victim to intercede in our behalf.

This gentle Savior pleads with us from the Host: "Love Me as I have loved you; abide in My love! I came to cast the fire of love on the earth, and My most ardent desire is that it should set your hearts on fire."

As we celebrate the freedoms of our great country, let us not forget these freedoms are blessings from God! Let us thank our Lord in Adoration.

Summer has begun! We need extra people for Adoration due to vacations, visitors, etc. Please call Ruthann @ 756-8551 if you can sub or commit to an hour.
